FOUR LAKESIDE FAVORITES WIN.

Favorites won four of Friday's races at Lakeside.

Winslow, the choice in the first race, and Pinky Potter, the talents' pick in the fourth events, both won as they pleased.

Pinky Potter, with 110 pounds, seemed to be too strong a favorite and missed the public play. The Cushing gelding was in his best form and perfectly ridden, won a nice race. Skillman, who caught the public play, had a deck hand up, and after going a half mile filed himself into the ruck.

There was a lot of excitement and noise raised over the fifth race. It was a half mile dash for 2-year-olds, and Nancy Seitz was the favorite at even money. The field got away well, but there was a lot of bumping as the field spread on the stretch turn and to the eighth pole. Judicial consideration caused the disqualification of Mouzeltoff. Mouzeltoff was on the inside and Anna Ventura on the outside. The latter swerved badly above the eighth pole and bumped into Nancy Seitz. She and Mouzeltoff at the same time collided into one another, and in the general mix-up the faulty ones could hardly be picked out.

When the bumping occurred the favorite was beaten. Lucy Blazes, the winner, ran far the best race and showed quality. She had all the worst of the going and was under punishment throughout.

Eugene Leigh's Ned Wickes was in a soft spot in the second race, a half-mile dash, and despite a bad ride, won easily. Turner messed the youngster about a good deal.

H. D. (Curley) Brown, the well-known starter, who is to do the work at Hamilton, Ont., and through the Northern Circuit, is in town.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Ed. A. Tipton, manager of the Montana Racing Circuit, shot through Chicago Sunday on his way to his home in Lexington. Below is his report about entries to the Montana stakes, which closed April 16. There are in all 830 entries to the twenty stakes, an average of 41 per stake. Evidently the Montana Circuit's health of 1898 is destined to be far better than in the past, even in the front of Chicago's new lease of racing life:

The Montana Derby, $2,500, for 3-year-olds; 1 1-4 miles. 36.

The Daily Stakes, $2,000, for 3-year-olds; 1 1-8 miles. 41.

The Young Miss Stakes, $1,000, for 2-year-old fillies; 1-2 mile. 34.

The Montana Hotel Stakes, $1,000, for 2-year-old fillies; 4 1-2 furlongs. 30.

The Last Chance Stakes, $1,000, for 2-year-old fillies; 5-8 mile. 20.

The Bitter Root Stakes, $1,000, for 2-year-olds; 1-2 mile. 46.

The Silver Bow Stakes, $1,000, for 2-year-olds; 4 1-2 furlongs. 46.

The Northwestern Handicap, $1,000, for 2-year-olds; 5 1-2 furlongs. 44.

The Ogden Stakes, $1,000, for 2-year-olds; 5 1-2 furlongs. 41.

The Copper City Handicap, $1,500, for 3-year-olds and upward; 1 1-4 miles. 43.

The Butte Selling Stakes, $1,000, for all ages; 7-8 mile. 49.

The West Side Handicap, $1,000, for all ages; 1 1-8 miles. 39.

The Anaconda Handicap, $1,000, for all ages; 1 mile. 42.

The Smeltermen's Handicap, $1,000, for all ages; 5 1-2 furlongs. 59.

The Hot Times Stakes, $1,000, for all ages; 4 1-2 furlongs. 51.

The Intermountain Stakes, $1,000, for 3-year-olds and upward; 5-8 mile. 39.

Winner—Ch. g, 6, by Blue Eyes—Claretta.
Off at first break to a good start. Won easily; next three were driving. Winslow was far the best. Were he not he would not have been in the first three. Morgan got him off in the rear division and was obliged to run around his field. Pitfall had bad racing luck. The track was to his liking, and with clear sailing he would have been hard to beat. Jersey Lad had no excuses. He was off well on his stride and always had clear sailing. Wild West and Terrific raced each other to pieces the first half. Red ran a good race under a bad ride. Laius was in and out the entire journey. St. Rupert retired early. Briseis was sharply interfered with at the start. It was a bad lot.
Overweights—Why, 2 pounds; Laius, 2.

Winner—B. c, by Kantara or Perblaise—Genevieve.
Post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily. The next three were very busy. Ned Wickes showed himself to be a good colt. Turner rode him poorly and was in every pocket available. He was by far the class of the race. The Hub is a fast youngster but cannot go a route. Watch him at a half a mile. Mizoura has been highly tried. Keep him on the tab. He was short today and swerved badly the last sixteenth. This fellow will do better on a fast track. Mulvihill looked high in flesh. He was hard ridden all the way. Buckner ran a fair race as far as he went.

Winner—B. g, by Leonatus—Belle of Runnymede.
Post 4 minutes. Start good. The first two were driving; third well in hand. Jackanapes was fit and well handled. He is a good horse right now. Bonito warmed up stiff and sore. She did not run her race. Gray rode the filly nicely. Watch Friar John. He took the long route and was not too sharply urged. Throw his race out. Nathanson is a long-striding colt and the track was not to his liking. Papa Harry will do better on a fast track. Floronso raced better than the figures show. He was badly ridden. Whirmantiline was short and went to pieces when the pinch came. Hogan and Conway might as well have stayed in the stable.
Scratched—Jim Brown, 93.
Overweights—Whirmantiline, 3 pounds; Nathanson, 2.

Winner—Ch. g, 5, by Ferg Kyle—Remnant.
Post 3 minutes. Start good. Won cleverly. It was a long hard drive for the place. Pinky Potter was far the best. Bloss rode him perfectly. He saved a lot of ground on the far turn and picked the good going the last quarter. Al Fresco was a trifle short. He stood the closing drive gamely though and is about ready. Topmast met with interference throughout. He ran his race. Cynthia H was poorly handled. Was always on the outside. Sir Hobart made up some ground at the end. Branch shot his bolt early. Skillman floundered all over the track. The boy could not do him justice.
Overweights—Sir Hobart, 2 pounds.

Winner—Br. f. by Blazes—Lucy Prince.

Post 4 minutes. Start good. The first five were driving hard. Lucy Blazes ran the best race. She had bad luck and got a bad ride. Sheppard tried to go through on the far turn, but was sharply cut off. It was not altogether his fault. The filly showed gameness and stood the trouble like an aristocrat. On the turn she ran around her field and standing a lot of bumping in the stretch came away nicely at the end. There was a long melee on the stretch turn. Mouzeltoff was charged with the trouble. It looked as though Buena Ventura was the offender. She was on the outside and swerved badly when pinched. Mouzeltoff on the inside bore out a trifle. This pinched Nancy Seitz off. The latter was all out and had no chance at that stage of the race. Mouzeltoff ran a good race. So did Buena Ventura as far as she went. She is a sprinter only.

Scratched—Vioris, 107; Fox Chase, 105.

Overweights—Rose Ash, 3 pounds; Falomacita, 2; Little Rosey, 2.

Winner—Ch. g. 6, by Long Tow—Meddle.

Post 5 minutes. Start good. Won in a gallop; second and third driven out. There was nothing to the race. Meddle was the best, the fact that he is a bad actor made the price. He got away nicely and ran his race. His reputation as a bad actor is too great. Paskola, well played, ran a clever race. The green boy rode him well too. Green Jacket's bad legs did not hurt him, and he ran to the notch. Lucy Belle was short. Watch her. Barring Meddle, she may beat the same kind. Warren Point is ready and is worth consideration on a fast track. Parson ran a bad race.

Scratched—Diggs, 107; Connie Lee, 103; Glenmoynce, 107; Ferryman II, 107; Albert S, 110; Sidonian, 108.

Start good. Hard drive of six horses. Flamaro was the best and is a good youngster; was unlucky. Hooker had a clear course and was well ridden. So was Flamaro. Zacatosa ran to his reputation but hung at the end again. Martillo was sharply shut off twice and not well ridden. He was closing at end. Tab him, too. Bly is ready. Was used too much. Dolore had a fairly clear course and closed strong. She is ready for a route. San Mateo is but a sprinter. He was badly ridden. He was cut off at start and on back stretch, too. Bernardillo was in the bumping at start and was generally unfortunate. He is fit and favors a route. O'Connell is a coward. He was not well used, but is ready. He was used too much and hung at end. Venado ran over his race, is fit and was well ridden. Twinkler ran less than his. Wasn't well managed, was a good colt at end and favors a route.
